

PISO'S

PROTECT YOUR LUNGS

If every cough you catch settles on your lungs, you have weak lungs. Don't let the cough hang on. A "hang-on" cough is dangerous to strong lungs—usually so to weak ones. Get rid of it in the beginning with PISO'S CURE. It acts promptly and effectively, allays the irritation, reduces the congestion, frees the throat of phlegm, clears the clogged air passages and stops the cough. For nearly half a century the unsurpassed remedy for the worst forms of coughs, colds and chest complaints has been PISO'S CURE.

Mrs. Irving Withers is on a visit in the Dover neighborhood with old friends and relatives. Irving says he misses the children so much and wishes they were home.

Dyer Sherwood who is 89 years old, J. W. White who is 83 was on hand and heard Bryan speak. They say if possible they will be on hand and vote for the great Commoner Nov. 3rd.

James W. Cunningham and wife, J. S. Vickers and wife, George W. Smith and wife, T. O. Williamson and wife, James F. Smith and son, Walter attended the fat stock show in Kansas City last Tuesday.

Last Friday the youngest child of R. L. Benning was badly bitten by a hog, its hand was badly lacerated. Dr. Nickell dressed the wound and says that by care the hand can be saved, but in all probability will be stiff.

The Baptist church here held a collection missionary meeting last Tuesday which was well attended. Lecturers, Mt. Hebron, Prairie and Higginsville were represented. They had the dinner served at the church. These social meetings are good things to have. They bring the working church elements together, where they can talk and commune with each other as the best way of getting the people interested in church work.

W. J. Bryan's special car passed through here on time last Saturday evening. He spoke from the rear of the train. He talked for five minutes. There was a large crowd out to hear him. The train had a banner on one side that read "W. J. Bryan Special."

Another, "Shall the people rule." The speaker showed an eagerness to hear within. He says the victory will soon be won. That the republican party might and wrangled among them.

self, while the democratic party is together and working in harmony. That if the democrats will come out and vote Missouri will roll up her old democratic majority. And the thing for them to do was to vote and see that others did so. "And roll up a big majority for the state ticket from Cowherd down."

The county candidates appeared here last Wednesday night. They all made good speeches, especially Claude Marquis. We mean no reflection on the rest when we personate him as a "special." W. S. Peacock opened up well, defining why he should be elected sheriff. Claude Marquis came next, then the spellbinder, B. C. Drummond, dwelt on public issues and certainly left the impression that he was the one to be treasurer. C. A. Keith followed in a well defined speech and spoke from President down to prosecuting attorney. Then James P. Chinn closed the ceremonies by denouncing Roosevelt and the whole republican party and declaring the democratic party as the party of the people and asked the support of the people in electing him to the State senate. Wm. H. Chiles was to speak but owing to previous business arrangements he could not be here.

following officers were elected: President, Prof. Carl Harwood, vice president, Rev. E. J. Henshaw; secretary and treasurer, O. G. Congdon; librarian, Prof. J. R. Plattenburg. The next meeting will be with Mrs. W. G. Harwood.

PITMAN-HODGES.

A beautiful autumn wedding was celebrated at the Christian church in Dover, Wednesday, October 14th at 3 p. m. when Mr. Fred Pitman of Kingfisher, Okla., and Miss Willie Holt Hodges were united in marriage, the Rev. J. E. Henshaw officiating. The church was artistically decorated with autumn leaves and vines together with potted plants and ferns. Miss Lela Pitman presided at the organ, and after the song, "Because I Love You," sung by Miss Elizabeth Vaughan, a cousin of the bride, the bridal party entered to the music of Lohengren's march. The attendants were Mrs. W. B. Harwood matron of honor, Miss Anna Greely of Fairfax, Mo., and Miss Florence Belle Beattie bridesmaids, Mr. W. B. Harwood best man, Mr. Buford Gordon of Lexington, and S. C. Redd groomsmen. The bride was beautiful in a gown of white, and carried bride's roses. Mrs. Harwood and Miss Beattie were also in white, while Miss Greely wore blue. All carried brides' roses. Messrs. John and Irvin Hodges, Frank Gordon and Frank Zeysing were ushers.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. C. S. Hodges, and belongs to one of the oldest and best of Lafayette county's families, therefore much interest is manifested here and elsewhere for her welfare and happiness. She was born and reared to womanhood in Dover, but has since made her home at other places, but being a young lady of ambition and talents she has won hosts of friends wherever she went.

The groom is a man of energy and ability and has gained the esteem and respect of everyone he has met during his visits here.

Mr. and Mrs. Pitman left on the 5 o'clock train for Kansas City, and after visiting there sometime they will go to Kingfisher, Okla., where they will be at home to their friends after November 15.

Rev. T. A. Bowman of Fredericktown, Mo., will occupy the vacant pulpit at the Baptist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Everyone is invited to come out and hear a good sermon.

The streets of our little town were thronged with people last Saturday, who came out to hear and see Wm. J. Bryan. The train was a few minutes late but the crowd waited patiently and as the decorated train pulled in the hand played and democrat literature consisting of buttons, Bryan's speech in German and post cards were scattered among the large audience. The time of the speech being limited to four minutes the great Commoner did not have time to demonstrate to his audience his ability to speak. The special left on schedule for Higginsville where he also addressed a large crowd of spectators.

DIED: At the home of his sister, Mrs. Galbraith, of Garden City, Mo. on Sunday morning, October 11, Jasper Beamer age 38 years. The deceased was born and lived until maturity near Garden City. He lived in Corder about 10 years and was married in 1903 to Miss Lucy Hackley of this place. They moved from here to Kansas City where they have lived ever since. Mr. Beamer was on a visit to his parents and was taken ill on the way. His wife was telephoned to come and she remained faithful to him until he was taken away by one greater than we. Mrs. Bettie Hackley, mother, and Miss Byrd and Mattie Hackley, sisters of Mrs. Beamer, attended the funeral which was held Tuesday at Garden City. They returned home Wednesday night.

On last Sunday morning about 10 o'clock the people of Corder were alarmed by the cry of "fire." Men with ladders were seen running towards the Christian church. During the summer, birds had built their nests in the chimney and had completely stopped it up and the janitor built a fire in the stove for Sunday school. After starting the fire the janitor went home thinking the Sunday school would begin in a little while. A little girl being a earlier than the rest seeing the door open went in and sat down. She had not been there long when she saw a blaze in the ceiling. She at once gave the report and the fire was soon extinguished. If the fire had went on fifteen minutes more it would have been too far ahead of "Our Bucket Fire Department."
